14 Days Pearl of Africa Safari

Day 1: Transfer to Ziwa Rhino Sanctuary & Murchison Falls

Upon arrival at Entebbe International Airport, our driver-guide will provide a tour briefing and transfer you to a hotel or directly to the national park, depending on your arrival time. During the journey to the national park, there will be multiple stopovers for refreshments and sightseeing, including a stop at Ziwa Rhino Sanctuary for rhino tracking, followed by check-in at Pakuba Safari Lodge in Murchison Falls National Park where your guide will outline the next day's activities.

Day 2: Game drive & Boat Cruise

Begin your day with an early morning breakfast at 6:00am, with the option to pack it for later consumption during your game drive. Following breakfast, embark on a guided game drive led by our driver-guide to observe Africa's Big Five and other wildlife species for approximately three hours, followed by lunch at a nearby eatery before an afternoon boat cruise along the riverbank, offering glimpses of elephants, hippos, and water birds. Finally, return to your lodge for dinner and overnight stay after the boat ride.

Day 3: Top of the falls & Transfer to Kidepo Valley

Begin your day with breakfast alongside our driver-guide at dawn, followed by a scenic drive through Budongo forest to the breathtaking Murchison Falls, where you can capture stunning photographs. Afterward, continue your journey to Kidepo Valley National Park, a 6-7 hour drive with stopovers for convenience and sightseeing along the way. Upon arrival, check-in at Kidepo Savannah Lodge, followed by dinner and a briefing on the next day's activities by our driver-guide.

Day 4: Game drives & Transfer to Kara-Tunga

Start your day with an early breakfast for an early morning drive, followed by a guided game drive led by our driver-guide to spot Africa's Big Five and other wildlife in Kidepo Valley National Park. After lunch at the lodge, prepare for a transfer to Moroto, the heart of the Karamojong world, where you'll stay at Kara-Tunga Safari Camp and have the opportunity to interact with the local community. Enjoy dinner and settle in for the night, learning about the fascinating culture and traditions of the Karamojong people.

Day 5: Cultural Tour & Museum Visit

Start your day with breakfast, then join our driver-guide for a cultural excursion to explore Karamojong traditions, including a homestead visit. After lunch back at the camp, visit the Karamojong museum to learn about their rich heritage, followed by dinner and reflection on the day's experiences.

Day 6: Transfer to Kapchorwa & Sipi Falls Experience

Begin your sixth day with breakfast between 6:00am and 8:00am before heading south to Sipi Falls in Kapchorwa, where you'll enjoy an abseiling adventure and hike to view all three falls. Afterward, transfer to Mbale city for dinner and overnight accommodation.

Day 7: Transfer to the Source of R. Nile & Rafting Experience

After breakfast, meet with our driver-guide for transfer to Jinja, home to the source of the Nile, with stopovers along the way for refreshments and sightseeing. Once in Jinja, enjoy an exhilarating rafting experience on the Nile, followed by a visit to the source of the river and a boat ride on Lake Victoria before settling in for an overnight stay at your pre-booked accommodation.

Day 8: Transfer to Kibale National Park

After breakfast, meet our driver-guide for transfer to Kibale National Park, known as a primate haven, with a drive lasting approximately 6-7 hours including stopovers for refreshments and sightseeing. Upon arrival, check in to your pre-booked accommodation at Chimpanzee Forest Lodge, followed by a briefing on the next day's activities before settling in for dinner and overnight stay.

Day 9: Chimpanzee tracking & Bigodi Swamp Walk

Start your day with an early breakfast before heading out for chimpanzee tracking with our driver-guide, followed by lunch back at the lodge. Afterward, enjoy a guided walk through Bigodi Swamp to spot rare primate and bird species, then transfer to Queen Elizabeth National Park for dinner and overnight accommodation.

Day 10: Game drive & Boat Cruise

Start your day with a morning game drive to spot wildlife like lions, leopards, and elephants, then have lunch either at the lodge or a nearby eatery before enjoying an afternoon boat cruise on the Kazinga Channel, offering views of elephants, hippos, and other marine creatures. Later, return to your lodge for dinner and overnight stay after a thrilling day of wildlife sightings.

14 Days Pearl of Africa Safari

9 Days Mt. Rwenzori Experience

Day 1: Transfer to Mt. Rwenzori National Park.

Meet our representative at Entebbe International Airport or your hotel in Entebbe or Kampala for a six-hour drive to Kasese. Check into Rwenzori Mountaineering Safari Lodge, where you can store excess belongings and prepare for the climb with a weight limit of 15 kg, ensuring items are stored to avoid dampness.

Day 2: Hike from Trailhead to Nyabithaba

Depart after breakfast for the Nyakalengija trailhead where porters are allocated, loads distributed, and you're briefed by Rwenzori Mountaineering Services. Relax and enjoy the scenery as you climb steeply to Nyabithaba Hut at 2650 meters, ensuring you have wet weather gear for the muddy sections and taking it slowly on the climb.

Day 3: Hike from Nyabithaba to John Matte

Begin with a steep downhill section crossing the Bujuuku/Mubuku Rivers, followed by an ascent through heather and giant groundsel forests to John Matte hut at 3,415 meters. Keep wet weather gear handy and drink plenty of water, pacing yourself to arrive comfortably at camp, where you can eat well and rest in the spacious hut or pitch a tent.

Day 4: Hike from John Matte to Bujuuku

Embark on a challenging five-hour trek through boggy terrain, aided by rubber boots, to reach Bujuuku Hut at 3,977 meters, offering breathtaking views of Mt. Baker, Mt. Speke, and Mt. Stanley on clear days. Take caution crossing the wooden plank causeway over Kibatsi Bog, leading to Lake Bujuuku, the final obstacle before reaching the hut.

Day 5: Hike from Bujuuku to Kitandara camp

Travelling most of the way through Scott Elliot pass, you descend to Kitandara camp just besides Kitandara lakes.

Day 6: Hike from Kitandara Weismann peak-Kitandara

Begin the day early to make the most of clear mornings, ensuring hydration for the strenuous climb, possibly carrying 3 liters of fluid. Depending on conditions, the route to the peak offers views of major peaks and the DRC rainforest below, with a midday return to Kitandara Hut, known for its stunning lakeside scenery.

Day 7: Hike from Kitandara to Guy Yeoman

A steep climb over the fresh field pass (4,282m), before descending to Guy Yeoman Hut, set in the giant heather zone at 3,506 m. It is likely you may experience seizure of joints – particularly knees today – keep a support bandage with you for this descent, and perhaps some anti-inflammatory pills/cream.

Day 8: Hike from Guy Yeoman to Trailhead

Begin your descent earlier than usual for a long walk back to the gate, including a steep descent through the bamboo zone to Nyabithaba hut before reaching the road head where the vehicle awaits; consider tipping your guide approximately USD 100-200 per climber, with any additional contributions appreciated, before returning to Rwenzori Mountaineering Safari Lodge for relaxation and bed and breakfast.

Day 9: Transfer to Entebbe International Airport

On this day, you will return to Entebbe by road and be transferred to the airport in time for onward flight or alternatively dropped off at your hotel for overnight stay if arranged for at an additional cost.
